the serial loser

soft thriller animation series

When "Freddy Kruger" meets "The Road Runner"
Night after night a monster breaks furiously into his own apartment and tries to murder his lazy roommate. However, the monster is more likely a serial loser than a serial killer, as all of his attempts fail! Hopefully his roommate goes over what it seems to be and is always here to console him... Episodes start scarring but are lots of fun at the end. For older and genre audience the series offer as well tributes to thriller classic pictures.
