

Ruzz & Ben

26' animation special

A wonderful modern urban tale for cute special Christmas and Easter programming

Ben (8 years old) and Ruzz (12 years old) are attempting to fly a kite in the middle of town and come across an old abandoned factory. The designer of this place is Rhizome, half-man and half-plant creature, who secretly watches the children invade his territory, filled with poetic objects dedicated to the four elements.

When they see Rhizome, the children get frightened and run away, causing a fire to break out in the factory. Rhizome manages to put the fire out and tames the children.

Fright gives way to friendship. Together, they will at last fly the kite.

Director: Philippe Jullien
Coproducers: JPL Films (France)
& ONF (Canada)
Acquired by: YLE, RTV Slo. and ARTE

Format: 26' special
Technique: stop motion animation
Target: family
Year of production: 2005 - France

Please ask for screener

Contact

megafilms.net

66, ave des champs elysées - 75008 Paris
Tel: +33.388.346.738 - Fax: +33.369.208.383
Email: francois.barraud@megafilms.net
Website: www.megafilms.net